Excerpt from The Latter-Day Saints Millennial Star, Vol. 66: January 28, 1904 Until the year 1891 Belgium was a part of the German mission. German speaking Elders labored in the eastern part as far back as twenty-five years ago. However, as most of the people speak French or Flemish, the prosecution of the work in German was necessarily restricted. For this reason it was made a part of the Netherlands mission by President Anthon H. Lund, since which time the work has been carried on in French or Flemish. Remarkable results were achieved in Liege and vicinity by Elder J. B. Ripplinger, who labored there from 1894 to 1897. At the close of his labors there was a branch of over one hundred members. They were, however, chiefly converts who were formerly Protestants and, up to the present time, it must be confessed that the way has not been opened for the successful preaching of the Gospel to Catholics. Of the three original branches of ten years ago in Belgium, the one in Antwerp has ceased to exist, due to the removal and emigration of the members, that of Brussels is dormant, while that of Liege and vicinity where Elders are now laboring, though not flourishing, is in good condition and some progress is being made. The popular conception of the Dutch is, so far as I can judge, about correct. Rather inclined to be slow and plodding, taking life very seriously, we miss in them that lightness and vivacity of the races of southern Europe. It would seem that the physical features of the country have impressed themselves on the character of the people. -it is a misty, rainy,...
