MEDITATIONS OF A WOMAN S HEART

Xulon Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Meditations of a Woman s Heart was written from journal entries made during the darkest time of my life. The first part of each prayer is a plea to the Father, expressing the emotion of the day. Sometimes, the emotion is fear or pain, sometimes it is love or joy. The second section of each meditation is the Father s response to that plea. Sometimes, He draws the reader up on His lap and holds them tight. Other times, He gently rebukes or corrects the attitude. At all times, He is the loving, caring Father each one of us needs. This book is written to give hope to those traveling on the path of healing. Hope is a deep need of all who struggle. If we have hope, we can make it through any trial. Joanie Yonker is the Executive Assistant to the Executive Director of Warm Beach Camp and Conference Center, Stanwood, WA. She is also a retreat and conference speaker for Women s Ministries across the country. She has written two booklets titled How to Pray for Your Children and How to Step Into God s Presence. She is married to Michael, lives on Camano Island, WA, and is the proud grandmother of eleven grandchildren.
