Excerpt: . . . of Equity as to the appointment of a receiver. It has long been a settled rule that no Master of the Court could be appointed a receiver, , 1854-, because it was part of the official duty of a Master to check the Exparte accounts of receivers; and though he might have nothing to do Russell, wjtn tne account8 of that particular estate, the Court held that IK RE Minnitt. it would be unsafe to allow him to act in that capacity. Again, Judgment, in the case of a lunatics estate, it is a settled rule that the committee shall not be appointed receiver. A still more analogous case to the present is the case in which the creditors of a bankrupt had so much confidence iu him, that they appointed him assignee of his own estate; but the Court removed him, on the ground that his duties as assignee were inconsistent with his position as a bankrupt. So, in the present case, the duty of preparing the balance-sheet is inconsistent with that of examining it. It has been said that the effect of a decision against the rule of the Commissioner will be to throw the estates of bankrupts into the hands of accountants, to the injury of the creditors. I have too much confidence in the Commissioners to apprehend any such result. I am satisfied that they will exercise a sound discretion as to making allowances out of the estates of bankrupts...
