Kaley s summer is not off to a great start. When her internship falls through and there are no other jobs around, she figures she s in for a long, hot, lonely summer. She s eager to finish her degree and move on to working a full time job. Her summer perks up when she realizes Jake will be coming to town for a visit. Not only is her older stepbrother a billionaire, he s gorgeous as well. Jake inherited his family business when his grandfather died. He s now a billionaire and spends most of his time in Europe. When an opportunity to come home opens up, he jumps at the thought. It ll get him close to his stepsister with her banging body. Kaley and Jake have been dancing around their attraction for years. When they re alone in tiny bathing suits, lust consumes them. Their passions are high, but there is so much at stake. Will their connection mean Jake s company will suffer? With more than their lives in the balance, Jake and Kaley may...
