Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In this book, we have been able to list and explain the numerous benefits which can be found in those that have ADHD. Though people with ADHD often act without thinking, they are hyperactive and are found to have a problem focusing on anything they do, yet they are super successful individuals in the society who have this disorder, and it didn't affect them in any way. We are not oblivious of the fact that these people with this disorder understand very well what is expected of them at any point in time, but they show some feelings of negativity in following through. This is simply because this problem does not allow them to stay focused on details, or pay keen interest, and does not allow them to sit down for such long time, yet when properly managed well, ADHD no longer becomes a problem. And the good thing is that during the process of managing this disorder as the child grows up, experience has revealed in so many instances that this disorder becomes a great tool to problem-solving and has been applied in so many aspects of human endeavor. Therefore, parents or anyone with this disease should not look down on his/herself, rather, they should focus on how to convert this disorder to their advantage just like so many persons has done, and they are living comfortably well in the society. -Terry Bradshaw, The former NFL quarterback, -Richard Branson, the businessman whose Virgin Group comprises more than 400 companies spread around the world, -Paul Orfalea, the founder of Kinko's company, -Alan Meckler, the internet pioneer, publishing executive, the current chair, and honorable CEO of Mediabistro. -Dean Kamen, the prolific...
