MARBLE CREEK (PAPERBACK)

Ship s Cat Book, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.After surviving the Everett, Washington, Massacre in November 1916, veteran Pinkerton detective Robert Jamieson joins the Army s fledgling Military Intelligence Division. Instead of being sent to France in 1917, he s assigned back to the Pacific Northwest, ordered to go undercover to track down Irish radical Malachi O Neill, suspected in a scheme to transport guns from Irish-dominated Butte, Montana, to Ireland. Find O Neill, find the guns and forestall unrest in Ireland that would weaken America s ally, Great Britain. Locating O Neill, he partners him in a remote logging camp on Marble Creek in north Idaho. Likeable, but deadly, O Neill has shifted his loyalty from the disintegrating Industrial Workers of the World, the Wobblies, to an incipient Irish rebellion. A young prostitute helps one man to the detriment of the other. And the woman who saved Jamieson s life on a dark street in Seattle? Their paths are fated to cross again.
