Excerpt: . . . 5 how the administration can justify spending so much money on a half-empty building that will not generate any extra revenue for the Federal Building Fund that is again almost going bankrupt is inconceivable. So while GSA wants to pour even more money into an overbuilt courthouse, GSA is proposing a new 427, 000 square foot lease for the Federal Trade Commission headquarters, further damaging the bankruptcy issue that I already mentioned and going against ev-erything that we have been talking about, particularly this chair-woman has been fighting for and working on, and that, frankly, the taxpayers demand. So in hearing after hearing, Members of this Committee have repeatedly expressed concern about the overuse of expensive leases to meet Federal space needs, again especially when we are dealing with headquarters space. And again we have seen this in study after study that GAO has warned us about the cost...
