Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Urzites - telepathic animals of many species found originally only on the southern island of Urz. Receptives - humans who are able to hear the Urzites. Only about one person in eighty or ninety is a Receptive. Most Receptives can only hear the animal who has chosen to be their partner, although there have been recorded instances of very rare people, SuperReceptives, who can hear more than one Urzite. The Warden Corps - a government-sanctioned force within which the Receptive-Urzite pairs function. The Wardens and their Urzite partners are mostly used as espionage agents and scouts in the ongoing war with the neighbouring nation of Zeranda, although some are also involved in search and rescue and also in recruitment and the finding of new Receptives. The next Urzite stepped forward. And the next. And the next. I tell you, it doesn't sound all that hard, just standing there repeating that spell, but it was exhausting work. Urzite followed Urzite followed Urzite, small ones, big ones, young ones, old ones; cats, dogs, horses, donkeys, birds, rats, lizards, monkeys. I stopped noticing them after a while. They just became a blur. I do remember that I did Umbis, though, and Sanpo, who was quite absurdly grateful, and, of all Urzites, Madame Uritta's Chym. I couldn't help but wonder what she'd think of all this. By the time lunchtime was over I was so exhausted I was about ready to fall off my wall and it was getting really difficult to get the words of the spell in the right places. However, I must have taught at least fifty Urzites to read, possibly twice that many. The crowd in the courtyard...
